Information on Using the Arolsen Archives Reading Room

Measures to stop the spread of the COVID-19 pandemic | As of: March 2022

- Visits to the reading room are only possible with a confirmed appointment. Registration must be received by the Arolsen Archives at least ten working days before the requested visit date.
- Access to the reading room is only allowed to visitors with 3G status.
- You are not allowed to visit the reading room if you have cold-like symptoms.
- Please sanitise your hands thoroughly before entering the reading room. Hand sanitiser is readily provided.
- Please maintain a distance of at least 1.5 metres from other users and the Arolsen Archives staff.
- Wearing your own face covering is required in the reading room. The face covering can be removed at your desk. It is obligatory to wear a face covering if the social distancing requirement of 1.5 metres cannot be observed.
- Use of the reference library is only possible to a limited extent.
